Travelling Salon Photos Displayed At Foster Studio

ART: I misunderstood at first. I thought they said a travelling salon was coming to town; but it was a travelling salon they were talking about. And what a wale of a difference one little "o" makes.

Anyhow, it won't hurt you a bit to walk up the one flight of steps between Skaggs Pharmacy and Rechter's Store on the south side of the square and into Foster's Studio, where the Travelling Salon photographic fraternity, is being shown through the courtesy of the Saline County Camera club. There's some of the best photography you ever laid your eye on at Foster's and they should be, too, because they're the best in the SIU Photo Fair held in January of this year. There were about 400 entries and the 50 considered the best are exhibited here.

Probably the biggest winner was Ted Markham of St. Louis, who has the grand prize and several others.

The photos are divided into three classes: (a) Pictorial, and (c) commercial.

The studio will be open through Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and until 8 p. m. on Thursday.

LOST AND FOUND DEPT.: I've heard of lots of things but I'd never heard of a forester, who knows the forests, who also is a scoutmaster, who should know how to get around in the woods, getting lost in a woods.

One of my sleuths informed me a group of scout leaders including the blond fellow of whom I'm speaking about got lost in the woods Sunday afternoon near Stone Face and the group was about two and a half hours overdue in getting out.

It's part of the scout leaders training course now in progress and I hope things get no worse as I understand there is a scarcity of scout leaders now.

This column late last summer told of the charges and of Neal's trip to Alaska. It need tell no more because Guy has the situation well in hand by now. He's been going up and down the land giving lectures on his trip and he's being well-received. In fact he's quite in demand for his talks.

Did you know that three weeks ago Mr. DeNeal talked to an estimated 3,000,000 persons?

It happened this way. A tane recording of his talk was made by Allied Mills and was used on a radio hookup of 27 stations in the north-west.

Last Thursday he spoke before the SIU Ag club at Carbondale. Tonight he travels to Roanoke, which is near Peoria, to give his address before a Parents-Teachers group.

Mother Refuses Blood Test for Paternity of Son

CHICAGO (UP)—A young mother broke down and sobbed Monday when a judge told her blood tests to establish the paternity of her son could save her marriage. She refused to take the tests.

Mrs. Darlene Carlson, 22, told Judge Julius H. Miner she was anxious to effect a reconciliation with her estranged husband, Richard Carlson, 25, who married her after her son Stephen, 10 months old, was conceived.

Carlson's attorney, Charles C. Conley, said Carlson worries so much about the child's paternity "that he cannot sleep at night."

Conley said before the couple was married, Mrs. Carlson confessed to Carlson that she did not know whether he was the father of the child she was expecting.

But Conley said Carlson, "in a gallant moment," said he would marry the woman and accept the child as his own.

Mrs. Carlson's attorney, Lawrence C. Boyle, said the woman is "paying the penalty because she was honest with her husband before their marriage. He has condoned her transgression and in the eyes of the law he is the father."

Miner ordered Carlson to pay $25 weekly for support of his wife and the child pending the outcome of his divorce suit and her separate maintenance suit.

Action Taken After Report by Justice Dep't

Accused of Close Association with Reds, H-Bomb Delay

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government disclosed today that Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer was stripped of access to A-bomb and H-bomb secrets by President Eisenhower on the basis of "substantial derogatory information" reported to him by the Justice Department.

This disclosure was made by the Atomic Energy Commission which stated in addition that the world famous "Mr. Atom" has been suspended not only as a scientific consultant of the AEC but also as member of the Defense Mobilization Office's Science Advisory Commission.

The AEC spoke out after Oppenheimer himself had released to the press documents detailing charges against him and his reply.

Two Main Charges

The noted nuclear physicist, credited more than any other individual with masteringmind development of U. S. atomic weapons, is accused of two main charges: Past close association with Communists and Communist causes, and with delaying U. S. H-bomb development.

In his reply, demanding a hearing, Oppenheimer denied he was ever a member of the Communist party and asserted that he did not oppose H-bomb development once it became an official project of the government.

A special AEC personnel security board headed by former Army Secretary Gordon Gray is hearing the charges against Oppenheimer and his defense. A final decision may be forthcoming in about two weeks.

Denied Access to Secrets

Meanwhile, Oppenheimer is denied all clearance to government secrets, including those of the AEC and the Defense Mobilization science committee headed by Dr. Lee A. DuBridge, president of the California Institute of Technology.

The documents released by Oppenheimer included a letter to him in which Maj. Gen. K. D. Nichols, AEC general manager, advised him of the charges and of the procedure for answering them. It was dated Dec. 23, 1953, and contained Oppenheimer's notification

Oppenheimer is Praised by Einstein, Others

WASHINGTON (UP)—Dr. Albert Einstein said today he has "the greatest respect and warmest feelings" for Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer.

He made the statement in a telephone interview from his home in Princeton, N. J., after being notified that Oppenheimer has been suspended as an adviser to the Atomic Energy Commission pending a new investigation of security risk charges.

"I can only say I have the greatest respect and warmest feelings for Dr. Oppenheimer," said Einstein. "I admire him not only as a scientist but also as a man of great human qualities."

Dr. Vannevar Bush, wartime head of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, who worked closely with Oppenheimer on the atomic bomb project, said he could not comment because he has been called to testify before the AEC security panel investigating the charges.

Joseph Volpe Jr., former general counsel of the Atomic Energy Commission, said:

"I think it is a national disgrace that a man who has done so much for his country should now have this happen to him."

Gen. Leslie R. Groves, World War II head of the Manhattan atom bomb project, refused to comment. "Without knowing the testimony" at the Atomic Energy Commission hearing, Groves said, "I couldn't comment on it. And even then I may feel myself prevented from commenting under regulations."

Voting Here is Lighter Than Four Years Ago

Voting was slightly lighter today than four years ago when a primary to nominate candidates for the same offices was held, it was revealed in a survey today around the noon hour.

For example, Harrisburg No. 1 had cast 202 at the same time that 235 votes had been cast in 1950. In No. 2 it was 231 compared with 248 four years ago and in No. 3 it was 234 today, 282 in 1950.

In Dorrisville, No. 5, the vote four years ago at the same time was 285, today it was 253. Today in No. 7 it was 167 compared with 197 four years ago. In No. 10 the noon vote was 227 today, 274 four years ago.

Precinct 11 showed the only increase over four years ago in the survey made, 265 ballots having been cast today at the time that 224 were cast four years ago.

State Primary Opens Crucial 1954 Elections

CHICAGO (UP)—The opening round of the crucial 1954 by-elections, which may alter the complexion of the U. S. Congress, began today with a primary election in the key state of Illinois.

The balloting will determine the fate of controversial Rep. Harold Velde, chairman of the House Un-American Activities committee, and will select a Republican opponent for Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas in next fall's campaign.

The polls opened at 6 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. Voters were allowed to select either a Republican or Democratic ballot, but Illinois' traditional party regularity made wholesale fence jumping unlikely.

A forecast of clear, warm weather was expected to increase the turnout slightly from an early prediction of only about 1,600,000.

Republican Velde said in a last minute victory prediction that his supporters "are intelligent enough to know most of the opposition stems from left-wing elements out to defeat me and including the Communist Party itself." His opponent is long-time state Legislator Robert H. Allison, a one-armed lawyer with a reputation as a friend of organized labor.

9-Man GOP Race for Senate
The Democrats had little to attract them since Douglas is unopposed and there are no contests for statewide offices.

However, almost every shade of Republican opinion was represented in the nine-man race for the senatorial nomination. A 10th candidate, who withdrew several weeks ago but whose name had already been printed on the ballots, brought the field to an all-time record for Illinois.

Joseph T. Meek, Chicago Tribune-backed lobbyist, Edward A. Hayes, former national commander of the American Legion, Austin L. Wyman, Chicago attorney who worked for the nomination of President Eisenhower before the 1952 national conventions, and University of Illinois trustee Park Livingston were the front runners, observers said.

Julius Klein, a public relations counsel running as a "Taft Republican," was a strong campaigner. The field was rounded out by blind Chicago Alderman Herbert Geisler, syndicated columnist John Crane, former Lions International President Edgar Albert and Lar (America's First) Daly who conceded defeat Monday.

All of the state's other 24 congressmen were also running for re-nomination, and nine of them faced opposition.

Referendum elections on whether city sales taxes should be levied could swell the turnout in four downstate cities, Springfield, Peoria, Cairo and Mount Vernon. Illinois law allows cities to levy sales taxes of up to 1.2 cent on the dollar, but only with referendum approval.

GOP Race for Treasurer

There was a three-man race for the GOP nomination for state treasurer, with Warren E. Wright carrying the asset of heavy backing in Chicago ward organizations. State Rep. Robert J. Branson has tried to line up both organization and independent backing, and Conrad F. Becker hopes to lead downstate.

The balloting today will also elect — not nominate — state central, township and senatorial party committeemen. Fourteen Republican and 15 Democratic state central committeemen were reelected without opposition. Four other candidates had no opposition, two from each party. But in some of the 17 contests, factional fights were being settled within local party circles.

Virgil Pearcy, 64, Fatally Injured in Fall

Death Follows Accident at Work On Junior High Project

Virgil Pearcy, employed on the Junior high school addition construction project, was fatally injured about 10 a. m. today while on the job.

Mr. Pearcy, 64 years old, died of head injuries received in a fall. It was learned that he was employed as a laborer by Brown-Anning-Johns of Indianapolis, subcontractors on the roofing job, and that he had been putting gypsum on the roof.

However, it was believed that he had come down to a lower level to take up a water hose and that he fell from a level covered with corrugated metal onto some concrete steps, a distance of eight or 10 feet, landing on his head.

He was rushed by ambulance to the Harrisburg hospital where a physician who saw him pronounced him dead.

The body was moved to the Gaskins funeral home.

Mr. Pearcy had long been a resident of West Sloan street in Harrisburg. For several years he resided at 424 West Sloan but more recently had lived in the 700 block of the same street.

He is survived by his wife, Snoda, and a son, James W. Pearcy.

An inquest into Mr. Pearcy's death will be held tonight at the court house by Coroner Elmer Gibbons, immediately following the inquests into the deaths of E. H. Hamilton and Bob Russell, who were killed in an auto collision last night.

Paducah Judge Rules Four Union Officers Guilty

PADUCAH, Ky. (UP)—The four top officers of the AFL International Association of Iron Workers were found guilty on 24 charges of contempt of court here Monday.

McCracken Circuit Court Judge Holland G. Bryan found the four guilty and set their bonds at $5,000 each. The four are J. H. Lyons, president; John McCarthy, vice president; James H. Downes, secretary; and John Dempsey, treasurer.

Bench warrants for their arrest were sent to union headquarters at St. Louis.

Judge Bryan ruled orally that the union officials had violated a temporary injunction last December restraining the international union from punishing officers of the Paducah Local 595 and otherwise hindering operations of the local.

Bryan said he would impanel a jury to fix the penalties against each of the officers, since under Kentucky law he is limited to imposing a $30 fine and 30 hours in jail on each count. With a jury, fines of $1 to $5,000 and jail terms of a day to a year could be imposed.

The court held that each of the 24 alleged instances in which the international refused to provide dues or stamps for members of the local after the two groups had a dispute constituted separate contempt of court actions and violated the temporary injunction.

Rites at Liberty Wednesday for William Cantrell of Buckner

William Cantrell, 75, resident of the village of Buckner, died early Monday in the Miner's hospital in Christopher.

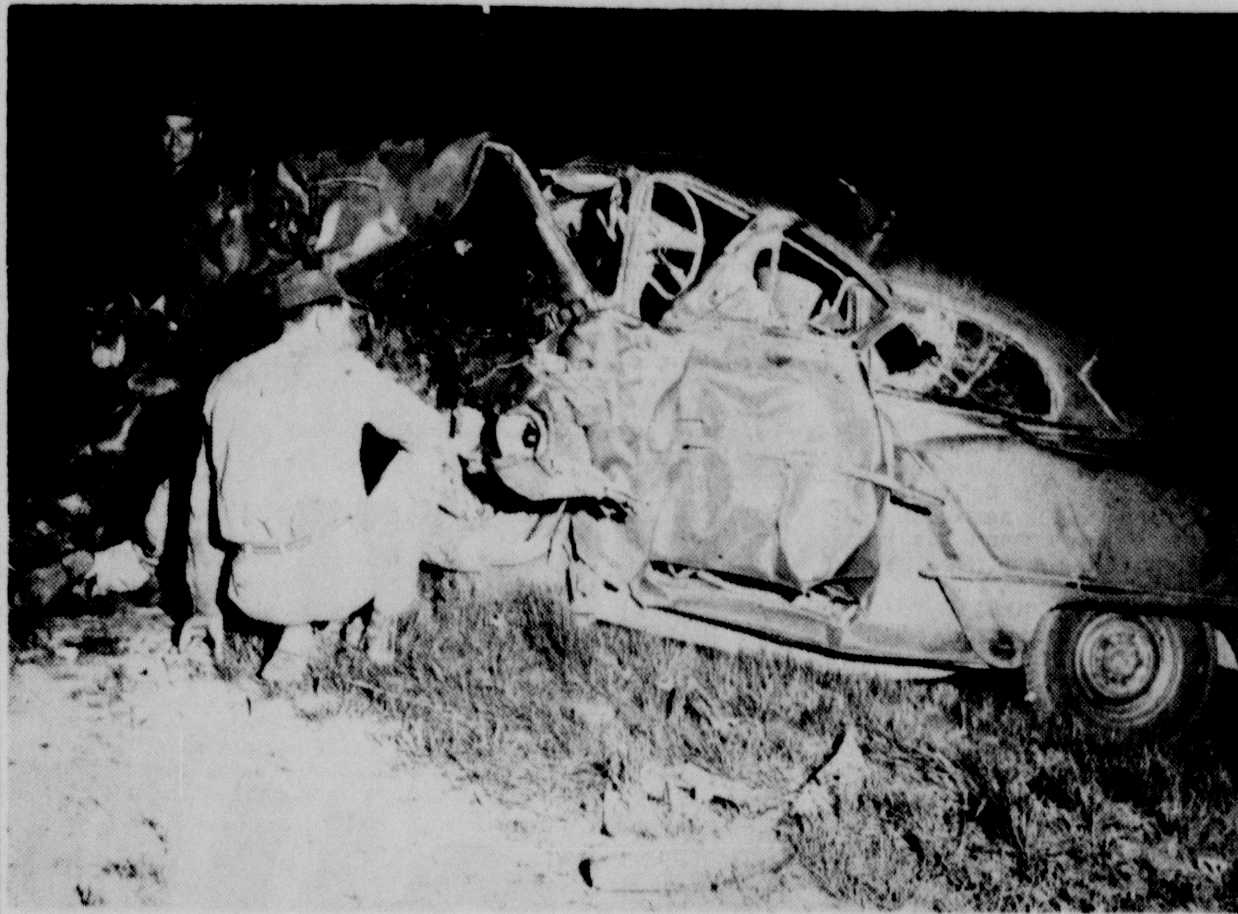

The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Liberty church in Saline county. Rev. Ural Bingham will conduct the service and burial will be in the church cemetery.

The body now lies in state at the Union funeral home in Christopher.

Walter Ragsdale, 76, Dies at Galatia

Walter Ragsdale, 76, died at 8 a. m. today at his home in Galatia. He is survived by his wife, Nannie, and five children, Mrs. Freda DeFalco, Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Loline Gray, Galatia, Mrs. Fern Baker, St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Janet Campbell, Galatia, and Donald Ragsdale, St. Louis.

The body now lies in state at the Courtney funeral home. Funeral plans have not been made.

DEATH CAR IN CRASH—The late model car in which Everett Hamilton, 26, was killed last night is shown above. Wreckage from the high-speed collision was scattered for 200 feet on both sides of the highway in evidence of the terrific impact. Hamilton was killed instantly in the crash, one of the worst in Saline county in recent years. A Benton youth, 17, driving a stolen car, was also killed in the crash. (WSIL-TV Photo)

Apple Blossoms In Full Bloom in Area This Week

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—Apple orchards in the Carbondale, Anna and Cobden areas will be in full bloom this week and through the Easter week end, the Illinois Fruit Council said today.

The warm weather of the past week helped the pink and white blossoms to a peak in extreme southern Illinois orchards and apple producing areas near Belleville and Centralia will be in full bloom in about a week.

Calhoun County, the apple growing center of Illinois, will observe Apple Blossom Week April 13-25 with special tours through the orchards April 25.

Northern Illinois orchards are expected to reach full bloom between 14 and 18 days from now. Rock Island County is expected to have the best blossom show.

Program for Easter Sunrise Service Here

Maj. Ed O. Nelson

An Easter sunrise service will be held April 18 at the Harrisburg Drive-In theatre, beginning at 6 a. m. This non-denominational church service, which will be the only one in Harrisburg, is being sponsored by the Kiwanis club with the cooperation of the Harrisburg Ministerial association.

The invocation will be given by Rev. Glenn Daugherty, pastor of the First Christian church; prayer by Lt. John Kimmons of the Salvation Army; and the benediction by Rev. W. J. Milligan, pastor of the South Land street Church of God.

The speaker will be Major Ed O. Nelson who has held Salvation Army appointments in the twin cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., Omaha, Neb., and Chicago, and he is now editor of the Scandinavian War Cry, "Stridsroset."

Besides congregational songs a choir of over 100 voices from various churches will render special numbers.

The Kiwanis club states the service will be held at the drive-in so the entire family will be able to attend and be comfortable in an automobile. A large crowd is expected, and everyone is invited.

FHA Files Under Investigation To Smash Scandal on Loans

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower today appointed Norman T. Mason, North Chelmsford, Mass., lumber company executive, as acting commissioner of the scandal-ridden Federal Housing Administration.

Mason replaces Guy T. O. Holladay, Baltimore mortgage banker, whose resignation was announced by the White House late Monday at the same time that President Eisenhower ordered FHA files seized for investigation of a multi-million-dollar home and apartment loan scandal.

Chairman Homer E. Capehart announced meanwhile that the Senate Banking Committee will hold up action on the administration's housing bill until the investigation is completed.

Search for Evidence
Informed sources said Mr. Eisenhower ordered seizure of the FHA files, both here and in field offices, after the FHA refused to open them for investigation.

FBI and other special agents immediately swarmed over the records seeking evidence of wrongdoing under two federal housing programs. Under one program, many home owners have been "fleece" by high pressure home improvement salesmen. Under the other, FHA-insured loans have been made for 75 million dollars more than the actual cost of the insured projects.

The White House said Holladay was ousted to make way for a full scale investigation of the FHA's operations. Mason presumably will play a big role in the inquiry as acting commissioner.

Holladay refused to comment directly on the investigation that led to his ouster.

But he told his former associates at FHA "You are a loyal group doing a fine job," and said he planned to change his voting registration from Democrat to Republican today "in recognition of the privilege of working for

Program for Easter Sunrise Service At Carrier Mills

The sunrise Easter service, sponsored by the Carrier Mills Ministerial Alliance, will be held at the Carrier Mills Baptist church April 18, from 6 to 8 a. m.

Herrin; offering; special music, Baptist quartet; prayer, Rev. Elmer Grisham; sermon, "The Christ of the Empty Tomb for this age," by Rev. C. A. Cronk, pastor of the Nazarene church; alternate, Rev. Carl Hanvey; benediction, Rev. Walter Fuller.

Benton Youth, Carrier Mills Man Are Dead

Youth Was Driving Stolen Auto, Chased by Police

A Benton youth driving a stolen automobile in a chase and an innocent victim from Carrier Mills were killed last night in a head-on crash of two automobiles on Route 45 a short distance southwest of Carrier Mills.

Dead are E. H. Hamilton, 26, an Illinois Central telegrapher who roomed in Carrier Mills and who was driving alone toward Carrier Mills; and Bob Russell, 17, of near Benton, who was driving a 1953 Chevrolet that Sheriff Paul Spangler said had been stolen from John A. Link, 502 Grand, Benton.

Hamilton was killed instantly, Spangler said, and Russell died shortly after he was admitted to Lightner hospital.

Russell's 17-year-old companion, Bob Thorpe, also of near Benton, was taken to the Harrisburg hospital. It was believed that his injuries were not serious.

Call From Service Station

Spangler said he learned that the two boys had been hauling junk yesterday in a truck belonging to Russell's father and that they had been drinking. Thorpe told Spangler that the two did not go home to lunch but that later in the afternoon Russell told him to wait near the railroad track, that he was going to town to get a car and would be back.

Russell returned, Thorpe told Spangler, and they started down Route 34 toward Harrisburg.

Harrisburg city police, who made the chase, said they received first word about the boys around 8 p. m., when they received a call from the Bishop service station four miles north of Harrisburg that the boys had stopped at the station and asked for a dollar's worth of gasoline. After getting it, they zipped out of the driveway toward Harrisburg, the police were told.

Police Gave Chase

Police spotted the boys in Harrisburg and tried to flag them down. Instead the boys sped away and the police gave chase. The car headed southward toward Carrier Mills and the police, following, lost track, going on into Carrier Mills to look around, figuring they might be there.

But moments later they received word there had been a terrible crash out on Route 45 and it was learned quickly that the two boys were involved.

Hamilton's body was taken to the Miller funeral home in Carrier Mills. Coroner Elmer Gibbons said that he was single, that he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton of Alto Pass. A brother, George, Joliet, also survives.

Gibbons said that Russell's body was first moved to the Harrisburg funeral home and later taken to Benton. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hart Russell.

Spangler said that motorists on Route 34 said they saw the car "fall over the road" and had to dodge it as it was approaching Harrisburg before the chase.

Coroner Gibbons said the inquests into the two deaths would be held at 6:30 p. m. tonight at the court house.

The body of Mr. Hamilton will lie in state at the Miller funeral home until Wednesday morning at which time it will be taken to the Walker funeral home in Alto Pass to lie in state until Thursday at 2 p. m.

The body will then be taken to the Baptist church for the funeral which will be conducted by Rev. Raymond Miller. Burial will be in the Alto Pass cemetery.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By BREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
William White Of New York Central Is One Of Youngest Railroad Presidents; White
Says Robert Young Flopped
With Chesapeake And Ohio;
Women And Labor Considered
As RR Directors.

WASHINGTON.—William White, president of the New York Central and spearhead of the battle of the railroad giants for control of the No. 2 railroad of America, is a man who really fulfilled the American tradition of working up from the bottom of the ladder.

Son of a master mechanic who migrated to this country from Holland, Bill White became a railroad man at the age of 16, under the same circumstances that another famous American, Chief Justice Earl Warren, also went to work for the railroad. Warren became a call-boy in a roundhouse because he had to support his family, and White got a $20-a-month job on the Erie for the same reason.

White, one of the youngest railroad presidents, is now 55 and has spent 39 years railroading. Most of his career was spent on the Erie, where his ambition was to become a division superintendent at the age of 30. Just 12 days before his 30th birthday in 1937 he became Erie superintendent at Youngstown, Ohio. Later he became vice president of the Virginian railway, then president of the Delaware and Lackawanna at the age of 43, and for the last two years has been president of the giant New York Central.

BATTLE OF TYCOONS
Not since the buccaneering battle between Jim Hill of the Northern Pacific and Ed Harriman of the Union Pacific has there been such a battle of the railroads. And having interviewed the dynamic Robert R. Young on television, I wanted to get the other side of the story from the man who is battling with Young for control of the New York Central. White had some extremely pungent things to say about the man who wants to take the railroad away from him.

"He's made people believe he's done a great job for the Chesapeake and Ohio," White said. "But of all the things that were started by Mr. Young, every one of them was dropped because they were not practical or they cost too much money."

"In 1947 Mr. Young was even opposed to using Diesel locomotives because he said it would use up our oil reserves. The other railroads switched to oil, and it took Mr.
Young two years to find out we were right."

Discussing in detail some of Young's ideas for running the New York Central, if he got control, White said he approved the idea of putting a woman on the board of directors if she were a stockholder and if she would add something to the direction of a railroad. But he was opposed to the appointment of a woman merely because of her sex. Mrs. De Witt Wallace, wife of the publisher of the Reader's Digest, he described as a fine lady but one who had been taken by Young. Mr. Young has proposed her as a director of the New York Central.

LABOR DIRECTORS?
"What do you think of putting this retired locomotive engineer on the board of directors, as Mr.
Young proposes?" I asked.
"Labor is smarter than Mr.
Young thinks it is," the New York Central president replied.

"The workingman is no dummy.
He won't be fooled by Mr. Young's having nominated this retired engineer. I know this man, and 600 stockholders who were at our meeting last year know him also. So I think when Mr. Young does things like that it aids our cause.
It plays into our hands very nicely, because he's attempting to fool the people."

Asked about the sale of 800,000 shares of New York Central stock by the C. and O. to Young's friends in Texas, White replied:
"The C. and O. stockholders had been told the New York Central stock was a fine investment for C. and O. stockholders. But a few weeks later the stock went to Mr.
Murchison and Mr. Richardson.
So we're convinced the C. and O. stockholders were just pawns in the situation."

Thus rages the battle of the railroad giants, and with six weeks still to go before the May 26 stockholders' meeting.

JIMMY ROOSEVELT
Steve Mitchell, Democratic national chairman, was explaining to a group of Democrats his reasons for trying to read Jimmy Roosevelt out of the race for Congress in California.

"One reason for my letter," he explained, "was to help Franklin Roosevelt in New York."

"How will your opposition to Jimmy help his brother Franklin?"
Mitchell was asked.

"Don't you see," replied Mitchell, "that when I go up to New York and stand beside Franklin during the race for governor, people will realize that I'm giving Franklin a clean bill of health."

"It looks like candidates for Congress," remarked "Jiggs" Donohue, former commissioner for the District of Columbia, "will not merely have to sign a loyalty pledge, but an adultery pledge."

IKE ON WATER
President Eisenhower had some things to say about water conservation at a recent meeting of the National Rivers and Harbor conference. One of his callers, Democratic Congressman Overton Brooks of Louisiana, had commented on the "arid conditions" he saw during a recent flight over New Mexico and western Texas.

Another caller, Republican Congressman Sid Simpson of Illinois, added: "You don't have to go to so-called desert areas to understand the seriousness of the problem. We have it in Illinois. In the southern part of my state, many farmers have to carry water from near-by towns to feed their livestock."

The President remarked that he realized our laxity in water conservation was becoming a "national problem."

"As a nation, one of our weaknesses has been our failure to appreciate the importance of water to the over-all economy," he said.
"We should be ready to pick up and use every drop, wherever it falls. In 12 or 15 years from now, farmers and city people alike will wake up to the fact, I hope not too late, that we have not given enough consideration to this vital natural resource."

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
He forgetteth not the cry of the humble. — Ps. 9:12.

We might use a bit of humility ourselves. God listens to humble people. We ourselves do not love inflated egotists too greatly.

Two Times

The modern world uses two kinds of time: sidereal time, which is absolutely correct, and solar time, which is not entirely accurate except on or about March 21 of each year. This latter time scale is the one in common usage.

Thyme, popular seasoning of today, was used as incense for their

Woman's Club Has Indian Welfare Program at Horace Mann; Mrs. J. L. Miller Elected President

The Harrisburg Woman's club met yesterday afternoon at the Horace Mann school for the Indian Welfare program.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the song, "America," directed by Mrs. Joseph Hart, secretary, who afterwards gave the minutes of the previous meeting.

Mrs. J. J. Klein, president, then made an announcement about the 24th district convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs which is to be held Thursday, April 22, in the Presbyterian church in Shawneetown. She urged the members planning to go to notify her so that she might make reservations. She also talked about the new piano for the club room to be bought with the piano fund which has been started.

Mrs. Klein then asked Mrs. L. I. Webb to give the list of officers the nominating committee had chosen for the coming year. Mrs. J. L. Miller was elected president; Mrs. L. B. Kimmel, first vice president; Mrs. N. A. Herrmann, second vice president; Mrs. G. B. Wiley, recording secretary; Mrs. Glynn McCormack, treasurer; and Mrs. John Foster, corresponding secretary. Directors-at-large are Mrs. J. J. Klein, Mrs. L. I. Webb and Mrs. C. C. Porter.

Mrs. Webb was assisted on the committee by Mrs. J. A. Bottomley and Mrs. N. A. Herrmann.

Mrs. Miller then gave a short talk, asking for the support of the members and telling each member to inform her as to the position they had rather serve in, so that she might make necessary arrangements.

The program was then turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. V. V. Brown, who in turn introduced Miss Alice Jarrell, teacher at the Horace Mann school, who wrote the script for her students in the play.

The curtain opened on ten Indian maids with braids, beads and head bands, 12 warriors with war paint, drums and colorful costumes, and an Indian chief with a feather headdress. The background scenery consisted of trees, skins and tepees with Indian designs.

A boy dressed as Uncle Sam and a girl dressed as the statue of liberty asked the Indians to tell some of their troubles. The first Indian warrior told about the dreadful disease tuberculosis that was taking the lives of the Indian men, women and children. Following this the maids sang "Little Papoose," the children then went on to tell about the lack of rain, the poor crops, no market for work such as weaving, schools, and about their not being allowed on buses, trains and in travel stations.

Uncle Sam then told them that their problems were being studied by men, and the Statue of Liberty assured them that it took time to change the life of a people and that things have been done and will be done.

She read from a newspaper that over 1,200 Indians from 35 different tribes were employed in Chicago now.

She and Uncle Sam and the Indian chief then smoked the peace pipe while the group sang the song, "Peace Pipe."

Miss Liberty then gave the "Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Charles Ridenour, city schools' music instructor, accompanied the singing at the piano.

Following the program, Mrs. Klein, then invited the group to look around the school at the Indian exhibits that the children had made.

Mrs. John W. Towle Speaks At Chapter Z, P. E. O. Meeting

Mrs. Richard Parker was hostess to Chapter Z, P. E. O., for its regular meeting Friday afternoon, April 9.

The president, Mrs. Lloyd L. Parker, conducted the opening of the meeting and during the business session plans were discussed pertaining to the annual meeting of the state chapter at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago April 22, 23 and 24.

Those planning to attend the state convention from Chapter Z, Harrisburg, are: Mrs. C. E. Combe, past state president; Mrs. Lloyd L. Parker, delegate; Mrs. B. G. Funkhouser, Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Mrs. K. C. Capel, Mrs. Carl Rude, Mrs. John W. Towle and Mrs. E. M. Travelstead.

In keeping with the theme "Countries and Customs" Mrs. John W. Towle gave an interesting and informative talk on Holland or The Netherlands. Maps were used to orient and refresh the group as to the exact location. One of the principal projects of this country is reclaiming land from the sea, and to date 143,000 acres have been reclaimed. It was described as an engineer's haven owing to the necessity of overcoming the many problems of nature.

Mrs. Towle gave interesting accounts of the industrial as well as the cultural phases of the country, inspiring a great deal of respect for this country and its people. She concluded her talk by relating stories, revolving about the life of Queen Juliana, much loved ruler of The Netherlands.

The next regular meeting scheduled for April 23 has been postponed until April 30 and Mrs. John R. Jackson will be hostess.

Mrs. D. E. Cavender is visiting in Muskogee, Okla., with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stanley, and grandchildren, Harold Allen, 4, and Druie Edward, 18 months, who is in the hospital recovering from spinal meningitis. The baby will be released from the hospital the first of next week, and Mrs. Cavender will return home this week end.

The third semi-annual Rebekah Assembly of District No. 29 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows met recently in the I. O. O. F. hall at McLeansboro, with 192 registering.

Delsie Mayberry, McLeansboro, president of the district assembly, presided. The soloist, Amadee House, sang "I'm in Love with You." Other elective district officers were Maude Malone, Galatia, vice president; Ruby Barden, Eldorado, warden; Edna Irvin, McLeansboro, secretary; Bessie Border, Harrisburg treasurer.

After these officers were presented Judy Hines and Helen Beverly sang "Make Believe." The appointed officers were then presented and the girls sang "You'll Never Know Just How Much I Love You." Amadee House sang "Indian Love Call."

The address of welcome was graciously given by Edna Woodruff, McLeansboro, and Lillian A. Barnett, Equality, gave the response.

As the president of the Rebekah State Assembly, Mary Rudolph, was presented, the girls sang "I Would Be True." Other state assembly officers present were Elizabeth Opsoh, vice president; Laura Woodruff, warden; Leta Massingale, chief of examiners and instructors; and Madge Johnson, representative to the association of Rebekah assemblies, and junior past president of the state assembly.

To these the duet sang "Our Best To You." Velma Pankey, page of the state assembly, was presented, while the song, "For Others," was sung. Thirteen past presidents were introduced while the duet sang "Memories."

When district officers from No. 17, 28 and 30 were recognized, they were welcomed with the song "Why Don't We Do This More Often."

Mrs. Mayberry then asked that the junior past president, Madge Johnson, introduce her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Thompson. As the two stood by the altar, the duet sang "Mother" and "That Little Girl of Mine."

A 50-year member, Ella Wooden, Junction, was honored, and the song, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," was sung.

Serving as escorts for the afternoon were Edna Irvin, Pauline Gersbacher, Georgia Mae Hartley, Martha Higginson and Velma Brown, all from McLeansboro, Maud Malone, Galatia, Ruby Borden, Eldorado, and Bessie Border, Harrisburg.

The highlight of the afternoon session was the president's hour when each lodge presented its donation to the "Serve Others" fund to the state assembly president, Mary Rudolph, who thanked each one for her donation which will be divided between the Old Folks Home and the Children's Home. The amount was $695.50.

Conferees Reach Agreement on Better Roads Bill

By United Press A Senate-House conference committee reached agreement today on a billion-dollar "better roads" bill strongly backed by President Eisenhower.

The measure, a compromise between differing Senate and House versions, would authorize a federal outlay of 966 million dollars a year for highway buildings, compared to the current spending level of 675 million dollars.

Mr. Eisenhower had urged in his budget message last January that highway aid funds be sharply increased.

The compromise, which is virtually assured of speedy acceptance by both chambers, was worked out after the House authorized $75 million dollars and the Senate $1,010,000,000.

Action on the measure was the legislative highlight of a day which found many lawmakers with their minds on baseball rather than bills.

Perjury Trial Of Shoulders Gets Underway

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The government tried today to prove a second St. Louis policeman lied about what happened to the missing half of the $600,000 Greenleaf ransom money.

The perjury trial of former police Lt. Louis Shoulders opened Monday in Federal Court. The first day was consumed in selecting an all-male jury and the government's presentation of technical witnesses.

Most of their testimony was designed to establish the legality of the grand jury which indicted Shoulders.

Shoulders and patrolman Elmer Dolan arrested Greenleaf kidnaper Carl Austin Hall last October. Dolan was convicted of perjury last month for telling the grand jury he took two suitcases containing the ransom money to the Newstead Ave. police station in St. Louis when Hall was brought in to be booked.

'Lone Eagle' Poses, But AF Camera Fails

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP)—Heard around Washington: Charles A. Lindbergh, a shy man anyway, is especially camera-shy. After the Senate okayed his nomination as a brigadier general in the Air Force Reserve, the "Lone Eagle" was sworn in at the office of Air Secretary Harold E. Talbot. To record the ceremony, the Air Force called in its best photographer. He was instructed to take just one shot. The young man carefully focused his camera and, at the right moment, fired away. The camera froze. Gen. Lindbergh waited while the Air Force fetched another camera—one that clicked.

This being baseball's 1954 inaugural day, old Clark Griffith got to reminiscing about opening day presidential pitching. The 84-year-old Washington Senators prexy, baseball's "good will ambassador," thought up the idea of inviting the president of the United States to throw out the first ball. He's seen 'em all since William Howard Taft (1912). Griffith says President Eisenhower winds up like a real baseball player—which he was in his West Point days. He nominates Herbert Hoover for the most unprofessional looking windup. "He had a windup like a washer-woman," Griffith said. Calvin Coolidge was the worst fan, according to Griffith, once walking out on a world series game with the score tied. But Mrs. Coolidge was, and is, an enthusiastic fan. Knows how to keep a box score, too.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson's department does everything from teaching folks how to build a better apple pan dowdy to carve a guinea hen and place same under glass.

so called. It is composed of a high-temperature fat, like peanut or cocoa oil. The candy will keep up to 114 degrees. Ask any of the lads in the tropics. They have been sampling the candy and think it's fine.

Bill Mann, head of the Washington zoo, has a new charge on his hands. A baby giraffe named Astrid. When I called old doc, Astrid was brand new. The little girl giraffe was 4 1/2 feet high when born. Six days later was 5 feet. Giraffes don't grow that fast. They just straighten their legs out. Mann reports that Helen, the mama Giraffe, is happy about Astrid. But Bob, the daddy giraffe, is pouting. Says Doc Mann: "He wanted a boy."

Aged Man Kills Wife with Hammer

LITCHFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A police man early today arrested a 70-year-old man driving around and around the block and the man told them he broke the handle of the tack hammer in striking his wife in the head and then threw the hammer away. Mrs. Boone's skull was shattered between the eyes.

Ioda Boone, 70, was held by Sheriff John Marley of Montgomery county after city police found the body of Mrs. Ida Boone, 63, under a bed in the Boone home.

Illinois Weather Bureau Office to Move to Iowa

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Illinois section U. S. Weather Bureau office here will be closed and all records and functions transferred to Des Moines, Iowa, in "the interests of economy and efficiency," it was learned today.

Section Director Paul Sutton said the office here will close May 1. All records of Illinois weather, now kept here, will go to Des Moines. The 200 cooperating stations throughout Illinois will make reports to Des Moines.

Sutton will remain at the Capital Airport weather station as "Illinois climatologist." He declined to comment on the move further or to reveal how many employees will be discharged.

"Anything further will have to come out of Washington," Sutton said. However, it was learned Sutton's downtown staff is being discharged.

Sutton said the Des Moines office will handle records and reports for Missouri as well as Iowa and Illinois.

Truman Attacks Self-Proclaimed Freedom Custodians

FULTON, Mo. (AP)—Former President Truman chose the site of British Prime Minister Winston Churchill's famous Iron Curtain speech to take to task Monday night self-proclaimed "custodians of our freedom."

The former president, appearing as the annual Green Foundation lecturer at Westminster College here, accused "political bogymen" of "making mockery of the very institutions they so callously pretend they are seeking to preserve."

"There is even one among them whose torrent of wild charges is calculated to damage the faith of Americans in the integrity of their government, army, school, churches, their labor unions, and the press," Mr. Truman said.

Oppenheimer Barred From All A-Secrets

that he was suspended from access to restricted information.

But the AEC statement disclosed that steps to deprive the 50-year-old scientist of secret material began shortly after Lewis L. Strauss, one of the original commission members, returned to the AEC as chairman.

Chairman for Five Years

Oppenheimer, whose connection with the U. S. atomic project began in the early 1940s when the A-bomb was merely a theoretical possibility, is now president of the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, N. J. From 1943 until the end of the war he was head of the super-secret A-bomb laboratory at Los Alamos, N. M.

He was a guiding figure on the AEC's general advisory committee, serving for five years as its chairman.

News of his suspension hit this capital hard. His former colleagues were shocked. In Darien, Conn., the man who made him chief of the Los Alamos lab, Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, took "full responsibility" for doing it. But he refused any other comment.

Opposed H-Development

In suspending Oppenheimer, the AEC cited information indicating he associated with known Communists in the 1940s, once hired Communists or former Communists for an atomic project, opposed H-bomb development, and delayed reporting a Red attempt to get secrets from him although he called it "traitorous."

Most of the charges had been made before and Oppenheimer had been cleared. In a 43-page statement to the AEC last month, the 50-year-old atomic expert admitted some past associations with Communists but denied he ever was disloyal.

Informed sources revealed that Lewis L. Strauss himself ordered the new inquiry shortly after he became the new AEC chairman last July. He wanted further information in the case and the investigation was carried out under a 1953 security order requiring a review of cases involving sensitive positions.

Refused to Resign

These informants denied speculation that disclosure of the action was in any way connected with any impending statements of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

As results of the investigation were brought to Strauss' attention, it was learned, official concern developed. It was suggested that Oppenheimer resign. When he refused, the suspension action was started.

Dulles, Eden Agree to Defense Pact in Pacific; Sec'y Seeks French Approval

PARIS (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles arrived tonight to invite France into a new defense alliance to protect Southeast Asia from Chinese Communist aggression.

Dulles flew here from London a few hours after he and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden agreed in principle to call for a 10-nation "collective defense" pact against the Reds in the Pacific.

But the American secretary faced serious difficulties with the French government which had been threatened with a Cabinet crisis only hours before he arrived.

American sources said the present situation in Indochina would be sufficient to bring the defensive pact into operation, once it finally is agreed upon.

Eden Criticized by Labor

They said such action obviously would be military but added they had never believed in the use of American ground troops in Asia.

The pact would include the United States, Britain, France, Viet Nam, Laos, Cambodia, Thailand, the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand.

Such countries as Indonesia and Burma also would be eligible, American sources here said.

Eden immediately ran into a storm in the House of Commons. He was interrupted by loud cries of "shame" and "another Korea" from the Labor side of the house.

French Premier Joseph Laniel's shaky government barely escaped disaster growing out of an agreement on the part Britain is to play in any European army.

Storm of Protest

Since the European Defense Community plan is as controversial in France as in Indochina, the signing of the EDC agreement with Britain defining the part Britain is to play on the continent militarily immediately raised a storm of protest. For a time it threatened the life of the Laniel government.

With French suspicions of Dulles' intent already running high, the American secretary's chances for success here were even less than they had been in London.

A number of French cabinet members were reported outraged by Premier Joseph Laniel's decision authorizing France to sign a plan on "integration" into the European army of British land and air units.

Pact Is Signed

Right-wing ministers tried Monday night to block fulfillment of the pact, but it was signed this morning at a secret meeting with

Soviet Secretary Asks Political Asylum

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—The third secretary of the Soviet embassy has requested and been granted political asylum, Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies announced today.

Menzies said the Russians had been informed that the secretary, Vladimir Michaelovich Petrov, a career diplomat, had chosen freedom after living here since February, 1951.

Menzies said Petrov voluntarily left the Soviet diplomatic service and asked for asylum through the Australian security and intelligence organization. This was granted in accordance with long established diplomatic practice, he said.

Page Attempts Comeback With Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Veteran relief pitcher Joe Page, former New York Yankee star now with the Pittsburgh Pirates, began a comeback attempt today as another major league baseball season unfolds.

Page, 36-year-old lefthander, was signed by the Pirates Monday after working out all spring in the Reds' training camp at Fort Pierce, Fla.

Out of baseball for two years after being bothered by a sore arm, Page came to Pirate General Manager Branch Rickey and asked for a chance to pitch.

The husky hurler from Springdale, Pa., said he believes a recent operation on his arm has been successful.

"I haven't had any trouble since I began working out with the Pirates last month," Page said. "Even when I threw a few hard ones I felt real good."

"I'm willing to start at the bottom again and try to work my way back," said Page, who five years ago helped the Yankees win the first of their four straight pennants. He went on to win a World Series game against Brooklyn and saved two others.

Cubs, Cardinals Open Season with Battle of Firsts

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals open the home season against the Chicago Cubs today in a battle of firsts.

Stan Hack of the Cubs will be making his debut as a major league manager, Red Schoendienst of the Cardinals will be taking over as team captain for Enos Slaughter who was traded to the New York Yankees, and six rookies, three on each side, will be fighting the jitters.

The Cubs' trio is centerfielder Bob Talbot and the Negro key-stone combination of shortstop Ernie Banks and second baseman Gene Baker.

Talbot hit .287 for Los Angeles last year and Baker batted .284 for the same club. Banks, whose experience was limited to Negro teams, hit .314 in a look-see 10 games with the Cubs last year.

The Cardinals will present Rochester graduate Wally Moon and a couple of $100,000 infielders they went outside the organization to buy.

Big Tom Alton, a Negro first baseman from San Diego, has shown well in spring training, and Alex Grammas' hitting is the chief question about the slick-fielding shortstop, a former Cincinnati possession.

Texas Approves Communist Control Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Only Gov. Allan Shivers' signature was needed today to outlaw the Communist party and all forms of subversive activity in Texas.

The Texas House and Senate Monday approved a conference report on a Communist control bill which fixes maximum penalties of 20 years in prison and a $20,000 fine for individuals.

House opponents called the bill "the end of liberty in Texas" and said it "ushers the police state in your front door and kicks freedom out the back door." But they mustered only seven votes, against 127 votes for it. The bill cleared the Senate on a unanimous voice vote.

Remember Bertha? In her day she was a whale of a cannon. But she was a cap pistol compared to the destructive power of the Army's new Atomic Cannon that is strengthening your security. With pin-point accuracy the Atomic Cannon throws an 11-inch atomic shell 20 miles! To withstand the shock and terrific heat of firing, vital parts of the Atomic Cannon are hardened in gas-fired furnaces. Merrick Praises Sportsmanship At Rotary Basketball Banquet

Letters Presented By Coaches at Meeting Last Night

Harrisburg Rotarians and HTHS basketball boys last night heard Dr. Roswell Merrick of Southern Illinois university, himself a former player, coach and official, deliver an interesting talk on sportsmanship at a combined Rotary meeting and basketball banquet held at the Masonic temple.

Following his address basketball letters were given out by the coaches and films of the 1954 state tournament, when LaGrange won the championship, were shown.

Dr. Merrick, who prefaced his talk with the air of loyalty found in southern Illinois, both in sports and in communities as a whole, told of the good sportsmanship that he had found in this area, then told of contrasting sportsmanship in other areas.

He told of contests in China, where a team either would not show up or would leave if it appeared they were beaten.

Actions in South America He related how, when an American team was touring in South America, the goals were raised and the basketball changed to keep the American team from winning.

He told of some South American countries where the officials carried revolvers while working a game. And he related instances on the same continent where moats were dug and filled with water around athletic fields to keep irate fans from doing havoc on the field.

In Venezuela sometimes, he said, fans were frisked for guns at the gate.

Dr. Merrick related an instance in Japan where fans who didn't like a contest burned down the stadium. And he told of a Cuban couple who divorced because each favored different baseball teams.

"Here in southern Illinois," he said, "you are enthusiastic and serious in your sports, but we find a wholesome spirit."

Calufetti Praises Team Head Coach Lawrence Calufetti praised his 1953-54 team for its spirit although it lost most of its games.

"I don't believe the Harrisburg fans thought we would set the world on fire this year," he commented. "But I do believe the boys have profited greatly by their experience." He pointed to the fact that four boys from the freshman-sophomore team were brought up to the varsity, which in turn put them in the freshman-sophomore and in the freshman teams.

"I want to thank my boys for the desire and spirit they showed," said Calufetti. "I firmly believe they gave all they had."

Varsity letters were given to Ronnie Riegel and Richard Gidumb, seniors; Gerald Wasson, Dave Harrison, Don Price and Charles Polk, juniors; and David Anglin, Tony Beal, John Wilson and Ronnie Williams, sophomores. Two managers, Ronnie Vick and Donald Reed, also received letters.

Gifts To Calufetti and Cady Coach Bill Cady of the freshman-sophomore team gave the following letters: Fred McKenzie, Joe Dorris, Jack Wright, Don McGowan and Everett Evans, sophomores; and Bennie Fulkerson, Bill Henshaw, Bryan Jones, Bill Bottomley, John Ziegler and Wayne Stone, freshmen.

Freshman team letters were awarded to the following: Trevor Whiteside, Bobbie Shewmake, Joe Karnes, Gary Crews, Herbie Parks, Larry Healy, Harry Aldridge, Melvin Hicks, Jim Cummins and Charles Cummins.

The varsity team gave a gift to Coach Calufetti with Riegel doing the presenting. A gift also was given by the freshman-sophomore team to Coach McGowan presenting it to him.

Rotary President D. H. Hiller presided at the meeting. He introduced Principal Raymond L. Foster and Calufetti.

Major Leagues Open Season; Estimate 220,000 Fans at the Eight Games

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Wake up Americans, it's time to go out to the old ball game again.

Yes, today is the day. Forget about fuel bills, coffee prices, H-bombs, the McCarthy investigation, Zsa Zsa Gabor, and the Iron Curtain boys — just for this afternoon.

That's what like's going to do. He's taking the day off to throw out the first pitch down in the nation's capital where the Yankees play the Senators in the ceremonial presidential opener.

President Eisenhower makes things official at 3 p. m. EST after every other one of the seven opening games has been in progress at least for half an hour, since all are scheduled earlier.

For this bright new season when everybody has high hopes — at least for awhile — there was a promise of bright and shiny weather on all fronts. Generally there is some rain and cold weather.

Lively Races in Prospect There will be upwards of 220,000 fans on hand in person at the eight games with millions more watching or hearing the progress of their heroes via television and radio.

Rio Grande Drops Bevo Francis for Non-Attendance

RIO GRANDE, Ohio (AP) — Scoring wizard Clarence (Bevo) Francis, who put little Rio Grande College on the nation's basketball map, was out of school today because of "non-attendance at classes."

Dean W. A. Lewis said Monday night that the committee on instruction decided to drop Francis because of too many absences and failure to make up some examinations. The action meant that Francis was out of school for the remainder of the semester.

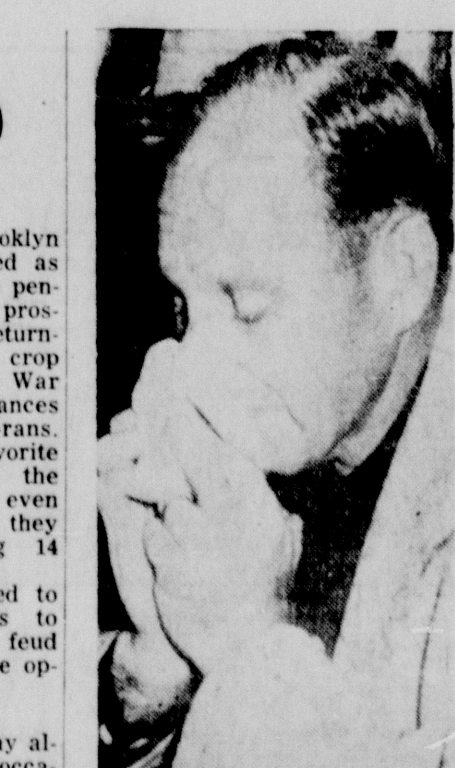

It was believed, however, that Francis, who holds the nation's small college season scoring mark at 1,255 points, was through for good at Rio Grande. He said last week that he was considering quitting school for "financial reasons," although he had two more years of eligibility remaining.

The college said Bevo had not attended a class in two weeks and that he had made up only one of his missed examinations.

Rio Grande Coach Newt Oliver was apparently on his way out too because he said in an announcement following Francis' that "if Bevo goes, I go too."

Oliver said the college had not informed him of the decision to drop Francis from school, but added "nothing around here surprises me anymore."

Oliver and university trustees have been at odds since the beginning of last season, mostly on emphasis of basketball at the small Ohio River school with an enrollment of some 125 students.

SLAUGHTER TRADED — Enos Slaughter, veteran St. Louis Cardinals player, broke down after learning in St. Louis, that he has been traded to the New York Yankees. (NEA Telephoto)

Busch Apologizes To Card Fans for Trading Slaughter

ST. LOUIS (AP) — August A. Busch Jr., president of the St. Louis Cardinals, apologized to the St. Louis fans for trading away an all-time Cardinal favorite, Enos (Country) Slaughter.

Busch said he would "be on the spot" every time one of the three rookies obtained for Slaughter steps out on the field. Busch told a Chamber of Commerce dinner Slaughter was peddled to the New York Yankees to make room for the rookies and to keep the Cardinals abreast of a "youth movement."

The new Cardinal-president made his apology to about 1,500 businessmen and sportsmen at an annual dinner honoring the ball club. The affair is usually a gay affair with pennant predictions and glowing reports of the club's spring training games.

Monday night's dinner resembled a wake.

Slaughter, an all-out hustle guy who would play the outfield with one foot in a cast if he could, was still shocked at the news that he was leaving the St. Louis organization after 19 years.

The 38-year-old grizzled ace of the Cardinals, who takes a .305 lifetime batting average into the camp of the world champions, actually broke down and wept when Eddie Stanky, the Cards manager, told him the news.

"After all these years with the organization," Slaughter said, "it's a helluva way to treat a fellow."

Peanuts Lowrey, Slaughter's roommate on road trips, voiced the opinion of the club. "I hate to see him go. He was a swell guy."

Snead Victor in Masters; Beats Hogan in Playoff

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Sam Snead put in a loud challenge to Ben Hogan's invincibility as the golfer of the era today after his stirring face-to-face victory over the tiring Texas bantam in an 18-hole playoff for the Masters title.

And Snead, forgivingly cocky after he forced Hogan to wilt before his own tight putting game at the Augusta National course, had a typical hillbilly comment for the occasion.

"The sun don't shine on the same dog all the time," cracked Sammy.

More exactly, the records showed that Snead now has pulled up close to Hogan with seven major world titles to Ben's nine; that he has defeated him the three times they met man-to-man in a playoff or match play; and that Snead is the only three-time Masters winner besides Jimmy Demaret.

Hogan has won the Masters twice and the field had almost conceded his third title after he finished the third round Saturday three strokes ahead of the field. But amateur Billy Jo Patton gummed up the works for the pros by shooting a hole-in-one and a flurry of birdies Sunday to alter Hogan's strategy so that he finished in a mediocre 289 tie with Snead as the amateur finally faded.

Both Snead and Hogan set a pulsating pace through the first nine holes in the playoff before 7,500 Monday with one-under par 35. Then they made the fateful turn where in 17 previous tournaments the title has been traditionally lost or won in the fourth round of the playoff.

It was not the first time Hogan had lost the Masters in a playoff over that historic stretch. His one-time mentor, Byron Nelson, beat him there in 1942.

$250,000 Fire At Terre Haute

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — A fire lieutenant was hospitalized and two firemen injured Monday night fighting a $250,000 blaze which destroyed a department store and damaged six other shops in the heart of the business district.

Lt. James Houghton, 34, was in Union Hospital in fair condition from smoke inhalation. Firemen Archie Grimes and Bob Long were overcome but did not require hospitalization. Fire Chief Zenis Nicosen estimated damage and said investigators are trying to learn what caused the fire. It broke out at 8:56 p. m. in the Levinson Department Store. Thirty-six minutes later, a third alarm was sounded. Two fire companies still were on the scene pouring water over the smoking ruins 12 hours later. Smoke and water damaged shops in five adjoining buildings, including Page Music Store, Joseph Men's Clothing Store, Meis Brothers Department Store, Alden's Department Store, Viquesney Stationers and Wiandt's Jewelry Store. PITTSBURGH (AP) — The nation's first full-scale atomic power plant, which will generate enough electricity to service a community of

KILL WITH CARE

BY HUGH LAWRENCE NELSON

THE STORY: An extortion plot resulted in the murder of Police Chief Otto Dwyer when he went to investigate the case. Later the body of a mental defective, Eddie Stone, the mayor's son, was found beside a confession to the killing. But two extortioners were involved in the murder of Chief Dwyer, and a number of prominent people of Colorado City are suspects. Lieut. Mark Richards and Private Detective Jim Dunn have gone to the Mansfield house, occupied by three families including Mayor Stone, where they have been interviewing the eccentric landlord Gaylord Mansfield, occupant of one of the apartments.

In the early morning sunlight, North Hill Road and the abandoned filling station appeared to be relaxing after a busy night.

Tim Early looked haggard, was red-eyed. "Glad to see you, Lieutenant. You too, Dunn. It was a long night."

"You been inside the station?"

"Nope. And no one else."

"You'd better go get some sleep. Take the rest of the boys with you."

"There is one thing," Early said. "May not mean anything. Come daylight one of the boys went down to look around where he found that ball point pen. You see that telephone pole down there on the main road? The one near that clump of brush?"

"I see it."

"Well, there was a lot of scrap paper all along the road there. Just trash. But down by that pole, it looked like someone had been walking around a lot, and there were wads of paper. Newspaper. Didn't look like the rest of the trash but like packages had been unwrapped."

A thorough search of the station, and even of its immediate vicinity, produced absolutely nothing.

Jim peered through the hole left by one of the missing window panes. "Looks as if a phone wire ran up from that pole to the station at one time."

Mark was grumpy. "A filling station does have a phone. Even back in the days when this one was a going concern."

On either side of the window sash were two small metal pegs, which slipped in and out of holes to keep the window locked open or closed. Dunn tugged gently at the two pegs. They pulled out easily. The window frame went down with a crash which shattered the remaining glass.

"What do you think you're doing?" Richards yelled.

Jim had his head and shoulders out through the now open top of the window. He looked up at the wires which were attached to insulators fastened to the filling station wall within easy reach. He hung out of the opening so long that Richards became interested.

Dunn pulled his head and shoulders back inside. "Take a look."

They exchanged positions. Mark took a shorter look, pulled back inside. "Fresh scratches on that lower wire. Looks as if it had been broken or cut and then spliced. That what you found?"

"Yes. And you notice the marks on the wood that holds the upper insulator?"

Mark looked again. "Fresh
